Barrow House

Iconic Irish Luxury

A wedding at Barrow House is a rare and exclusive experience held in the most beautiful waterfront location in County Kerry.

Barrow House ensures total exclusivity and privacy for you to celebrate your day and create memories with your loved ones.

Humanist, civil and solemnised ceremonies are permitted on the grounds of Barrow House.

The natural beauty of the Atlantic Ocean and the Slieve Mish Mountain range are the outstanding backdrop to your wedding.

Barrow House provides an intimate environment, elegant interior spaces, and landscaped grounds for small weddings, for elopements and a destination to renew your vows.

With an exclusive private rental of our Irish Georgian Country House, you can rest assured that each day you spend here with your friends and family will be one you will cherish forever.

We bring the same world-class standard of excellence and resourcefulness to organising your wedding as we do to running our award-winning Country House

At Barrow House, our team encourages you to imagine your celebration in a unique and personalised way and to let your style and ideas lead the way.

The Venue

A Landmark property on an Atlantic tidal bay, surrounded by beaches and turquoise sea.
The current version of the house, built in 1715 and extended in the late 19th century, has now been restored to its Georgian elegance and glamour.

We invite you to celebrate, reconnect and escape with your friends and family to the idyllic West Coast of Ireland.
You will experience a thousand moments of dancing sunlight over the waters of the tidal Barrow Bay.

We offer you the opportunity to mark your union in a seated ceremony in the gardens, at the end of the red carpet on our boat deck, or in the case of the smallest gatherings of 18 people or less,
inside the Manor House within the elegant Marble Room.

The Accommodation

Barrow House has interior design with luxurious elegance in mind. We reserve “Egret” our master bedroom for you, our largest suite, with double fronted bay windows, chandeliers and with the most breathtaking sea views from the window seats.

All rooms are peppered with thoughtful details and considerate architectural design such as double doors and vestibules for soundproofing and ensuite bathrooms with powerful rainshower or relaxing bathtubs.

The wedding package includes use of nine ensuite superking, king and twin bedrooms and one large family suite. All rooms have sea views across Barrow Bay or are overlooking landscaped gardens with large private terraces.

Handmade mattresses, Egyptian cotton sheets, goose down duvets and pillows come as standard. We offer bathroom toiletries, Tea and coffee making facilities and treats in your bedroom hampers.
